

Savage Street Fights Going on in Hungary

VIENNA (UP)—Savage street fighting broke out today in Budapest and Hungarian provinces.

Reports reaching Vienna indicated the Soviet Army was attacking the rebel patriots in a massive effort to end Hungary's nationwide strike against the puppet government.

The Hungarians had prayed for a miracle to save them from another round of blood-letting in their struggle for freedom but the miracle did not come and fighting resumed today.

SOVIET ARMED forces and Red Hungarian militiamen had been alerted for instant duty and needed only a word of command to launch a new massacre.

Reports filtering through to Vienna from silenced Budapest said bloody clashes were taking place wherever the new Red police of puppet Premier Janos Kadar attempted to make the strikers return to work.

But the reports indicated the fighting had not yet reached the scale of another all out uprising.

THE CRUNCH of mobile artillery and mortar fire kept tense Budapest awake through most of the night.

And in the hills to the north, Russian infantry and tanks closed in on 10,000 partisans who began shooting even before a presidential committee declared martial law and outlawed the regional workers councils Sunday.

Machinegun fire rattled sporadically from the Gelert Hills, a villa-speckled outcrop within the confines of western Budapest. It was believed Hungarian police and militia and not the Soviets were attacking the freedom fighters in this area.

THE CLASHES continued despite the heavy punishment by military tribunals that is to be meted out under the martial law which went into effect last night. The martial law provisions could be stretched to affect anybody who did not actively support the regime.

The picture of fighting in the provinces was not clear. Budapest still was cut off for the most part from communication with the outside world and refugee reports were conflicting.

But it was reported that clashes were frequent in the region of Pecs, where coal and uranium mines were in such bad condition that miners could do nothing even if they were willing to go back into the pits.

THE TATABANYA mining region west of Budapest also was in ferment. In the only known clash reported from Tatabanya, 28 persons were killed and scores injured two days before the outlawed Budapest Central Workers Council called for the 48-hour general strike.

The strike was scheduled to end at midnight tonight. But refugees reported that workers everywhere were determined to go on with the walkout until the hated Kadar regime changes its tough policy of coercion.

IT WAS NOT yet known what the situation was at Budapest's Csepel Island iron and steel mills. Russian tank and Hungarian militia have ringed the Csepel plants for two days.

In Budapest, the strike was reported to be as "total" today as it was Tuesday. Street cars and buses were idle. Electricity was cut off most of the day. Only a few shops were open to keep the defiant citizens supplied with food.

First Serious Trouble Since Peace at Suez

UN Force Head Flies to Scene of New Outbreak

LONDON, (AP)—Saboteurs exploded 16 bombs Tuesday in the Anglo-American oilfields at Kuwait, setting fire to one oil well and damaging pipelines, dispatches from Bahrain reported today.

It was the first serious outbreak against the West since end of the Suez fighting. Kuwait police began an investigation but said no arrests had been made.

Other attacks on oil wells, gas pipelines, power station and a water distillation plant were unsuccessful, but tanker loadings were suspended and strict security precautions were set up.

A FOREIGN OFFICE spokesman said the sabotage had not affected the overall production in Kuwait, Britain's biggest oil suppliers. Kuwait is an independent Arab nation under British protection and is located at the head of the Persian Gulf. It supplies 60 percent of Britain's oil.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, head of the United Nations Emergency Force UNEF flew from Cairo today to Port Said to set up headquarters in the tense city. The independent Egyptian newspaper Al Ahram said in Cairo the UNEF would take over Port Said formally on Saturday.

The newspaper said Egyptian forces expected to enter the city on Christmas Day to take over from the U.N. police.

AT THE SAME time Israel said it answered the question of its total withdrawal from the Sinai Desert and there were no indications it would balk at turning over the entire area back to Egypt on grounds a new war might break out if it did.

Walter Eytan, director general of the Israeli foreign office, told United Press correspondent Eliav Simon in an interview that Israel would ask the UNEF to remain in the Sinai Desert until a peace treaty is signed between Israel and Egypt.

Nixon May Go to Austria, Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon may fly to Austria soon to make a first hand study of the Hungarian refugee problem, diplomatic sources said today.

Informants said the trip is under top level consideration in the administration as a means of dramatizing U.S. concern for the plight of the Hungarians driven out of their homeland by Soviet terror.

Reports circulated in Vienna today that Nixon would arrive there Saturday.

But informants here said the trip, if made, will not be this weekend. It may be late next week, however.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he was checking the report that Nixon would go to Austria, but did not expect to have any definite word before late this afternoon.

Saund Does Not Plan Nehru Conference Tuesday

Congressman-Elect D. S. Saund last night said he will attend a State Department luncheon for India's Premier Nehru in Washington, Tuesday, but does not expect to confer with President Eisenhower's distinguished guest.

Saund, native-born Indian, honored with a victory dinner at the Chi Chi by the Palm Springs Democratic Club, said he and Mrs. Saund were invited to the affair in a telegram from Vice-President Nixon.

He said he would also attend, by invitation, a reception for the Indian leader at the Indian embassy following the State Department luncheon.

ACKNOWLEDGING his victory in November over Jacqueline Cochran Odlum, Saund remarked that he someday hoped to tour the world as "a living example of Democracy in action" but that such a trip would be undertaken only with the support of the State Department.

He explained that he had planned an India visit following his election. But, he said, such a tour might "do more harm than good" without the proper guidance.

"As a simple country boy granted overnight fame," he said, "I would probably be greeted by many reporters and, without guidance, I might not know who to talk to, or what to say."

When "conditions change," he added, he hoped to embark on his trip in the near future with the full consent of the State Department.

SAUND POINTED out that his election proved to the people of the world that Americans have dispensed with prejudice and would accept all peoples as equals.

He challenged an editorial appearing in The Desert Sun which he said, dealt with his "thinking of India too much instead of true problems."

"My interest in bringing understanding to all peoples did not begin with my candidacy," he said. "Nor do I expect to remake the world or have ambitions to write State Department policy. However, my interest in world understanding will not end with my election."

Saund reported that his immediate interest in office will concern such important local issues as flood control. He pledged his support in dredging plans for desert area flood projects up from the sea of red

Blues Sung by Frankie Laine On Cooperative Apartment

The County Planning Commission heard the voice of Singer Frankie Laine yesterday, but the blue notes echoed by Laine's manager had nothing to do with the Hit Parade.

Courtney Cress, Laine's Beverly Hills manager, said his client is planning a healthy investment in a cooperative apartment project facing Tamarisk Country Club.

Cress appeared on behalf of the singer, who is now touring Australia, at the commission's public hearing on the controversy.

ASKING THE Commission to grant Montague N. Herbert's request to change his property zoning from single-family to multiple family residential, Cress explained that Laine and other Hollywood notables planned to join the venture for economic reasons.

He pointed out that Laine, who owns a Tamarisk lot, can't afford to build because of high income taxes.

Palm Canyon Tree Contract Recommended

City Manager R. W. Peterson tonight will recommend a contract for the installation of palm trees on South Palm Canyon Drive to Neel's Nursery and ask the City Council for its approval.

Peterson told the council at its luncheon meeting that it had been quite a chore to get 186 trees from individuals around the area, and that even though the cost might be slightly higher, the job could be more speedily done by a contractor.

In a letter to the city administration, Earl Neel said that by Aug. 1, 1957, he could supply all the trees the city needs, and have them all installed. All trees will be between 13 and 25 feet high.

The council had put out a call for palm trees early last month, but to date has had little luck in securing bids.

As soon as the contract is awarded, Neel said that he could immediately plant 80 palms on the drive. Two types will be planted, robusta and filiferous, which are the two main kinds seen throughout the Village.

Cost of the trees will run about $8 per foot.

Irish Nationalists Attack British in Arms Seizure Try

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, (AP)—Irish nationalists attacked army, police and government installations across Northern Ireland today in a gun-blazing attempt to seize a fortress full of arms.

Sentries and police patrols foiled the main assault on a British Army regimental headquarters at Armagh, but the nationalists seized 200 pounds of dynamite in one of 12 raids.

They also destroyed a radio transmitter and damaged bridges.

THE RAIDS, carried out under cover of a battering northern gale, was the biggest single campaign since Northern Ireland's six counties were separated from the rest of Ireland 34 years ago.

Northern Ireland mobilized its emergency force of 12,000 police and police reserves. In Britain itself the Home Office alerted police and Army posts throughout the country.

The latest attack reported was near Enniskillen where the raiders, operating in one of a series of coordinating raids, seized 200 pounds of dynamite stored in a quarry. A nearby unoccupied National Guard armory was blown up.

Police patrols intercepted another raiding squad headed for the British Royal Air Force radar station at Torr Head on one of Ireland's northernmost points.

In this skirmish the raiders opened fire and police shot back. Three nationalists were captured. The radar station, one of NATO's main watchposts against attack from the East, was not harmed.

The main effort was directed at the fully manned Irish Fusiliers Regimental Headquarters at Gough Barracks, Armagh, with the raiders trying a pincers approach.

This failed when police intercepted a truckload of nationalists in Armagh and a sentry inside the stone-walled fortress heard prowlers outside and called out the guard. The headquarters night patrol opened fire and drove off the raiders.

Bad Check Cases in Village Reach $4,307, Warning Told

More than $4,000 worth of bad checks are currently under investigation by the Palm Springs Police department, and Chief of Police August G. Kettmann today repeated his warning to merchants to use care in cashing checks during the Christmas season.

"Under these circumstances, hardly does the old proverb, 'Let the buyer beware', prevail," said Kettmann, "for it should be 'Let the seller beware'."

Officer T. M. Aitken, in charge of investigation of bad checks, said today that he has 18 cases currently open and in investigation stages. The total amount of money taken from Palm Springs businesses by check passers in these cases amounts to $4,307.

TO DATE, ONE half of the offenders are in custody in other cities because of the local check warning systems used by the department. Some of these were caught passing checks in the other towns and are first standing trial there, then will be returned to Palm Springs for trial on local charges.

At the top of the list is last week's "passer," who "dropped" more than $2,000 worth of bad checks at local clothing stores, and fled before he could be apprehended. Operating under the name of Louis P. Gobbie, and showing a temporary California driver's license for identification, the man and his companions were listed as "the cleverest check artists to operate in the resort community."

WITH WARNINGS being published in The Desert Sun and broadcast over the radio, Kettmann hopes to alert merchants of the great potentiality of being the victim of bad checks during this holiday season.

The police chief said today that it is his hope that he will be able to have a public showing of the motion picture "The Forger," released by Attorney General Edmund G. Brown's office in Sacramento, especially for the training of police officers.

First Refugee Air Lift Arrives; Told for kfe, 'Now Among Friends'

MCGUIRE AFB, N.J. (AP) — The vanguard of 15,000 Hungarian refugees to be brought to this country by a military mercy air-sea lift landed here today. They were told by a representative of President Eisenhower: "You are among friends."

The 199 Hungarians, first to arrive under the massive Operation Safe Haven ordered by the White House, landed in four silver planes of the Military Air Transport Service.

The Hungarians were happy and excited, but some were a bit worried about the future. AS EACH REFUGEE filed from his plane before the base terminal building here, he was greeted personally and handed a printed statement by Tracy S. Voorhees, President Eisenhower's representative and personal coordinator of the Hungarian refugee program.

It said, in part: "Acting on behalf of President Eisenhower, welcome to the United States of America!"

"You have come among friends. You are the vanguard, and as such the representatives of the many thousands of brave Hungarians to whom President Eisenhower has offered asylum under an emergency provision of our immigration laws.

"THE AMERICAN people are stirred by your courage and by your suffering and those of your fellow countrymen. Our people everywhere in America earnestly desire to do all in their power to help your start your new life in our country. I repeat: You are among friends!"

Newsman, including this one, who had watched the refugees enter Munich and had flown with them in this first military lift, knew that they needed friends. They had pitifully few belongings, and many of those were ill-fitting and even makeshift clothing.

But they had courage. All 50 of the men, women, and children aboard my plane had risked their lives crossing into Austria. Many of them were fighters who had attacked Russian soldiers and the hated Hungarian security police with rifles and grenades.

ONE SLIM, 21-year-old youth approached me on the plane and asked, through an interpreter, how he could become an officer or soldier in the U.S. Army. He explained that Russian soldiers had killed his father as they walked together on a Budapest street.

"He says he hopes that once in his life he can fight against the Russians," the interpreter said. "because the Russians killed his father and he wants to give that back to his father."

Almost none of the 50 wanted his name published, fearing reprisals against kin still in Hungary.

Cold Wave Hits Mid-West With Icy 40 MPH Blasts

A UNITED PRESS A cold wave spilling out of Canada swept the West and Midwest today, borne on icy wind blasts of 40 miles per hour.

The high winds fanned fires into major blazes at Superior, Wis., Keokuk, Iowa, and Chicago.

Firemen at Superior braved temperatures of 5 degrees below zero in battling a six-hour blaze that destroyed two downtown buildings. The fire raged about 12 apartment dwellers in one of the buildings and damages were estimated at more than $300,000.

AN EXPLOSION AND fire destroyed a variety store in the heart of the Keokuk business district, but firemen prevented the wind-whipped flames from spreading to adjacent buildings.

Two fires in Chicago were fanned into extra alarm blazes by high winds. One of them razed a garage on the near north side and the other destroyed a variety store on the south side.

THE WAVE OF FRIGID air extended from Washington State through the Great Lakes and forged as far south as Northwest Texas. Temperatures plunged to near 15 degrees below zero overnight near the Canadian border and ranged to near 10 degrees in South Dakota and Southern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Snow flurries in the cold air area accumulated to about an inch from South Dakota through Colorado and westward through Idaho and Utah.

Weathermen warned of freezing rain in the Central Plains and moderate snowfalls in Nebraska and Iowa and from the Great Lakes eastward.

Bethlehem, Government Hope for Quick Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both Bethlehem Steel Corp. and the Justice Department today hoped for a quick decision in their coming court fight over Bethlehem's proposed merger with Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co.

Bethlehem—the world's second biggest steel company—announced in New York Tuesday it will go ahead with plans to merge Youngstown despite previous Justice Department warnings the merger will violate anti-trust laws.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. announced immediately that the Justice Department will file a civil anti-trust suit in an effort to block the merger.

Pilot in Banshee Crash Identified

SAN DIEGO (AP)—A Navy jet pilot, killed when his F2H2 Banshee broke in two in the air and crashed, was identified today as Lt. Cmdr. James B. Morris, 32, San Diego.

Morris' shattered plane crashed Tuesday into a brush-covered field near Leucadia, a coastal community 30 miles north of here. Naval authorities were investigating the strange mishap to see if the plane had exploded.

The crash caused a brush fire which firemen controlled after an hour-long battle.

THE MERGER WOULD be one of the biggest in American history, creating a corporation with assets totalling more than $2 billion and annual steel output of 24.8 million tons.

However, the enlarged Bethlehem still would rank well below the nation's and the world's largest steel company—the giant U.S. Steel Corp. U.S. Steel's annual output is 39.1 million tons.

Bethlehem currently has a rated steel-making capacity of 19.1 million tons a year. Youngstown—the nation's sixth ranking steel firm—has a capacity of 5.75 million tons a year.

BROWNELL CONTENTS that the merger would bring about a restraint of trade and would tend to create a monopoly. He said the anti-trust laws directed the department to oppose mergers which tend "to create a monopoly."

Bethlehem officials countered that contrary to the government's position the merger actually would tend to stimulate trade in the industry.

Justice Department and Bethlehem officials said they hope the government's suit can be quickly brought to court and settled.

BETHEHEM ANNOUNCED more than two years ago its intention to merge with Youngstown through stock acquisitions. Brownell warned against it.

Officials of Bethlehem and Youngstown said details of the newly proposed merger have not been worked out yet. They said the plan would have to be submitted to the stockholders.

Bus Passenger Kills 1, Terrorizes 30 in Coffee Shop

NEWPORT, Ore. (AP)—An Ohio man was held in jail here today as the result of a wild shooting spree in a coffee shop that killed one man and terrorized some 30 bus passengers.

Police arrested John Willie Long, 33, Dayton, Ohio, Tuesday after he fatally shot C. J. Huff, Portland, and wounded three others.

The shooting took place in a Greyhound bus coffee stop. The patrons watched in horror as a quarrel that had broken out between Long and Huff on the bus exploded in violence.

HOWARD BURPEE, Portland, a passenger on the bus, said Long walked up to Huff and demanded, "Give me that $100 or I'm going to shoot you right in the face."

Huff apparently refused, whereupon Long took out a pistol and began firing.

One of the bullets struck Thomas E. Sanders, 54, Molalla, Ore., in the hip. Another struck Daniel Clancey, 40, Neotsu, Ore., in the back. Neither was hurt seriously.

LESTER LAWYER, 23, an Army private stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., and en route to his home in Lapwai, Idaho, suffered cuts when he crashed through a glass door in an attempt to flee the cafe.

Roy Anderson, driver of the bus, walked up to Long after the shooting and demanded the gun. Long handed it over without protest.

Remember Coed Trapped in Car Nine Days? She's to Enjoy Merry Christmas

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP)—Eighteen-year-old Jean Margetts works today in a toy store to earn money for Christmas—a Christmas few ever expected her to see.

Less than five months ago Jean was trapped for nine days beneath the wreckage of a car in the desolate Wasatch Mountains of Utah; her only companion the body of her sweetheart.

I can't believe yet that it could happen," the dark haired girl said as she stood behind a counter in the toy store.

SURROUNDED BY dolls, blocks and gay Christmas decorations, Jean said, "It's all like a big dream."

"But I'm standing here because the Lord was standing by helping me."

Jean's extraordinary escape from double death—auto accident and starvation—has left practically no visible mark on the pretty Brigham Young University coed. Her color has come back; she's vivacious and laughs as freely as any girl her age.

"She still tires easily," her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Margetts said. "But her strength is coming back."

RIGHT NOW SHE is busy with Christmas plans and preparations for returning to school at Provo, Utah, after the holidays.

"I've been buying some new clothes and the money I'm making now—it's not much, I'm only working part-time—I'll spend on Christmas presents," she said.

Unless one talks to the girl there is little about her to hint at the nine days of living death she went through last June.

Returning from an excursion with her fiancé and boyhood sweetheart, James Hixon, Jr., 22, Jean was in high spirits as they drove toward Provo. Somehow Hixon lost control of the car and it plunged off the mountain road into a heavily wooded ravine. Hixon was killed and Jean was pinned under the wreckage unable to move.

A SEARCH PLANE spotted the wreckage more than a week later.

Dorn Appointed 'Smog' Chairman
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Supervisor Warren M. Dorn, who waged a successful campaign for county office on an anti-smog platform, has been appointed to head the Board of Supervisors' Air Pollution Committee.
Board Chairman John Anson Ford said Dorn's colleagues were awaiting the new supervisor's ideas on smog "with hope that he can advance the county's unrelenting campaign to clear the air of pollutants."

GUEST SPEAKER at a Bonds for Israel campaign dinner at the Chi Chi Dec. 23 will be Leo Lania, noted foreign correspondent, author, playwright and lecturer. His topic will be, "The United Nations — Israel and the Middle East."

Noted Foreign Correspondent To be Speaker at Bond Dinner

Leo Lania, prominent foreign correspondent, playwright, author and lecturer, will be the guest speaker at a dinner meeting at the Chi Chi Sunday, Dec. 23, on behalf of the State of Israel Bonds campaign. It was announced today by Jonas Bienenfeld, chairman of the Palm Springs committee.

Lania will use as his topic, "The United Nations—Israel and the Middle East."

MR. LANIA HAS COVERED the key centers of the world for dozens of leading European newspapers and American magazines. His journalistic career began after his graduation from the University of Vienna in 1912 when he became assistant to Mussolini. His work in Italy was interrupted by World War I, during which he served as artillery officer in the Austrian army.

Returning to Italy at the end of World War I, he found Mussolini heading the Fascist movement, which Lania opposed. Lania wrote of fascist graft, corruption and terror and warned of the impending threat to liberty. When Mussolini came to power, Lania was forced to flee the country and went to Berlin.

While in Germany, he became Edgar A. Mower's assistant. He scored one of the great journalistic triumphs of all time when assuming a false name and using false credentials, he interviewed and lived with Adolph Hitler for ten days.

THESE INTERVIEWS became the basis of the best selling book, "Hitler—the Gravedigger of Germany." It was followed by "Traffic in Arms," an expose of Germany's secret rearmament. These works earned for Lania journalistic kudos — and Hitler's undying hatred. Hitler himself in his newspaper called Lania, "the most dangerous enemy of National Socialistic Germany."

In the years following Hitler's rise to power, Lania was a foreign correspondent in France, the Balkans, Russia and the Far East from which he reported the sorry sequence of appeasement politics.

IN 1940 AFTER THE collapse of France, Lania's name was given to the Vichy government as one of the most wanted criminals. He was arrested and placed in a concentration camp from which he escaped in 1941.

Immediately after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Lania became the anti-Nazi propaganda expert for the Office of War Information. Still a foreign correspondent, Lania has been associated with the United Nations and has been a contributing editor of the United Nations News.

City Council will cancel its conference meeting for Dec. 24, and may not hold its regular meeting on Dec. 26.

City Manager R. W. Peterson said that the council would hold a luncheon conference meeting next Monday and again on Jan. 7. The council will meet in regular session tomorrow night and then on Jan. 9.

The Palm Springs city offices will be closed from Friday, Dec. 21, at 5 p. m. until Wednesday morning, Dec. 26, for the Christmas holidays. There will be no days off for New Year's except Jan. 1, for all city employees.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., the nation's third oldest city, was founded by Father Jacques Marquette who established a French settlement there.

Off-Street Parking Again Discussed Without Action

Once again proposed off-street parking regulations for the unincorporated areas of the county have been considered by the board of supervisors and put aside without action. It was a request from the City of Palm Springs that sparked the discussion this week.

The Palm Springs city council especially urged establishment of regulations covering off-street parking for commercial hotel and apartment uses. It looked for a moment as though there might be some action when Supervisor William Jones declared, "I'd approve of that. It is o. k. with me just so long as regulation is confined to multiple dwellings."

SUPERVISORS Paul Anderson and George Berkey disagreed however. "Why make exceptions?" asked Anderson. "I don't think the proposed ordinance should be changed," said Berkey. The ordinance would require off-street parking space for single residences.

"Under the ordinance a man would have to furnish space to park his car even if he didn't have a car," objected Supervisor McCall.

"Even if the builder didn't have a car he might want to sell his house to a man who did have one," said Berkey. "Eventually a car owner is going to live there. Where are we going to put all the cars that are coming into the county?"

"I BELIEVE IN A policy of

"live and let live" when it comes to zoning," said Jones.

Filed along with the Palm Springs document was a letter from the Tribal Council of the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians requesting the enactment of an adequate off-street parking ordinance to protect business and property and to contribute to the safety of citizens.

PREPAREDNESS FOR ATOMIC WAR

It is so well established that a major war utilizing atom and hydrogen bombs would be suicidal, that all reason rejects the possibility of one engulfing the world. Unfortunately, we are not dealing with reasonable men on the other side of the Iron Curtain.

The clique drunk with power one day may also be so sotten with vodka, that instead simply of insulting the ambassadors of the free nations by boasting "We will bury you," they will give the order for the burial itself. Then they will set all hell loose.

We have rejected the possibility of such an order ever since the summit conference at Geneva. President Eisenhower made no secret of our own antipathy to atomic warfare. He came away from that meeting satisfied that the Russians do not want atomic war, either.

However, nothing remains of the afterglow of Geneva, not even the false smiles. The build-up of Egypt, which drove Britain and France to the desperate Suez invasion that alienated the United States and all other free peoples, was the first proof of it. The savage suppression of the Hungarian bid for freedom was the second. Nikita Khrushchev's boast, to bury freedom throughout the world, was the final warning.

We can still believe that atomic and hydrogen war cannot come because it is suicidal and yet not rule out the fact that the men mad enough to murder a nation in cold blood in Hungary will not hesitate to risk their own people in an insane reaching out for world conquest. That is why we cannot depend on the Kremlin conspirators to think reasonably. That is why we sent our jet bombers aloft to show that they can fly to the heart of Russia and back with their lethal hydrogen bomb.

Militarily, we are prepared. Our atomic and hydrogen bomb arsenal is still the world's largest. We can give better than we get. Admiral Arthur A. Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and General Alfred M. Gruenther, retiring supreme commander in Europe, have both told the Soviet we are ready to retaliate into the very heart of their land mass. The question is, will they heed facts and warnings? We cannot stake our existence on it. We must be everlastingly prepared.

HOLMES ALEXANDER

The Modern Counterrevolution

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Woodrow Wilson made page 15 of the Baltimore Sun last week, and that's news. The man biting the dog, as far as I'm concerned, was Dr. Arthur S. Link, a history professor at Northwestern University, who chewed up Wilson and left him in tatters in a Johns Hopkins lecture hall.

Wilson was presented by Dr. Link, author of a forthcoming Wilson biography, as an egoist, a hypocrite, a fool and a bungler. All this, mind you, in the city where Wilson was first nominated for the presidency and at the university where Wilsonian "idealism" and internationalism are enshrined by the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations (discontinued in 1933). Owen Lattimore, still lecturer in history, and by the memory of Alger Hiss, class of 1926, who received an honorary degree of LL.D. in 1947.

IN THE ISSUE of reference, Dec. 5, 1956, the Baltimore Sun gave Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam a featured spot on the back page, where local news is always presented. Bishop Oxnam was speaking at a Methodist Church conference held in Baltimore. His subject ("To Segregate Is Sin") was racial relations.

Bishop Oxnam is a revolutionist, and Dr. Link is a counter-revolutionist. It's sound journalistic practice, I suppose, to give the favored news-story spread to revolution. But it strikes me that the modern counterrevolution, the long lane's turning away at last from the Wilsonian tangle of anti-nationalism, makes better copy.

For those who didn't catch the yarn, Dr. Link was visiting Johns Hopkins as the Albert Shaw lecturer on Diplomatic History. He gave a series of addresses on Wilson, ripping him hide and hair, and leaving the bones to rot in the sunshine of the Eisenhower Era which, unless there's a backslide, is the time when we've stopped joining other people's wars.

WILSON AND Eisenhower were both college presidents before reaching the White House. Both were presidential candidates on the kept-us-out-of-war theme. Both were elected to a second term while Britain and France were at war. Both were urged toward the war flame by the international moneyed interests and by the psychotic sufferers from the Mother-Country complex. Wilson caved in. Mr. Eisenhower has thus far not only resisted but has effectively ordered the Franco-British invaders out of the trenches.

Wilson, of course, did not list the international banks, the domestic prosperity and the Oedipus complex as among his reasons for joining World War I. "America is privileged to spend her blood . . . for the principles that gave her birth . . ." Wilson told Congress in asking for a declaration of war. "God helping her, she can do no other."

THESE WERE Wilson's public

words on the subject, given after America had been whipped into a frenzy by allied propaganda against the German Hun. But what were Wilson's opinions before the frenzy mounted? Through out his first term, when America was demonstrably neutral, and throughout the re-election campaign, when he was offering "peace" as his second-term program, what did Wilson inwardly believe about the nature of the war in Europe? Dr. Link, after years of researching these questions, says:

"Never once throughout the period of American neutrality did Wilson explain or set down his personal views on the causes and merits of the war."

BUT, DR. LINK continues, there is internal biographical evidence that Wilson believed that "the causes of the war were enormously complex and obscure." In Wilson's opinion, according to Dr. Link, among these causes were:

British imperialism, French desire to regain Alsace-Lorraine, Russian desire for a warm-water port on the Mediterranean, German ambition to displace Britain as the world's great power, Hungarian and Austrian nationalism within the Hapsburg empire, entangling military alliances among the same countries (plus the United States) that are entangled in some four dozen military alliances as of today.

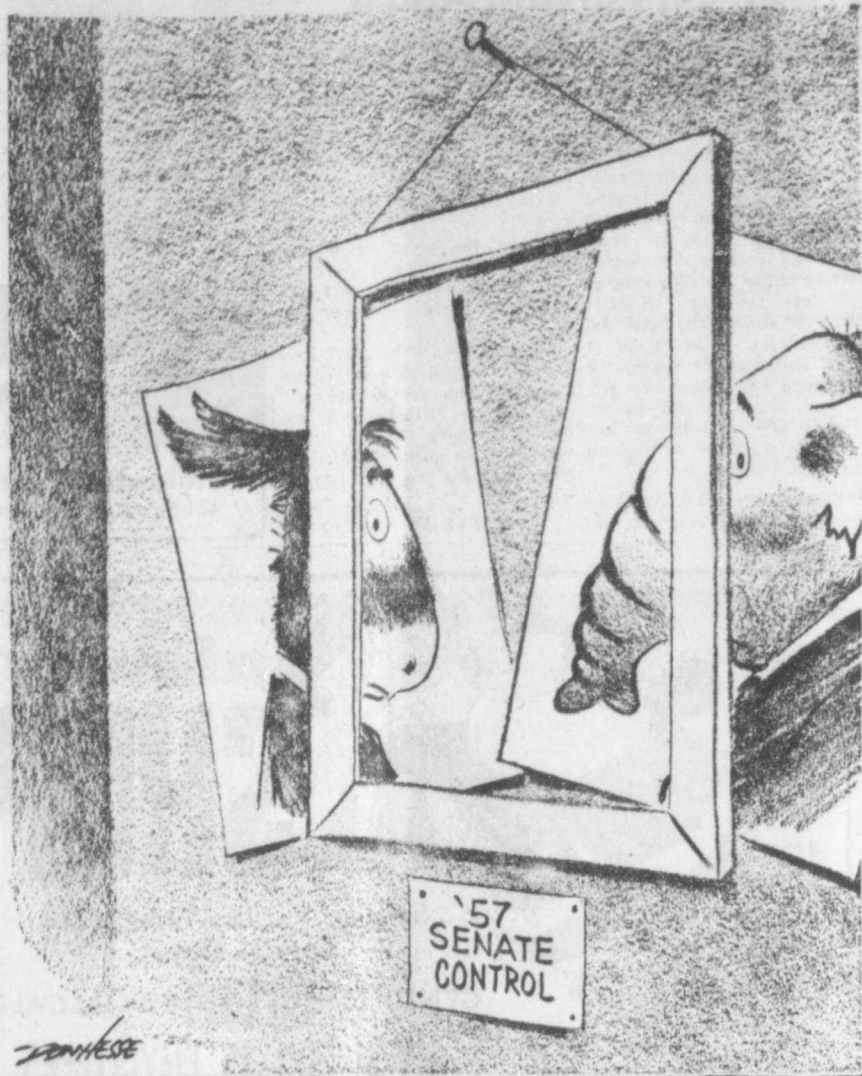

Dr. Link's critique of Wilson is hot and current stuff. In fact, it's almost front-page copy.

Thyssen, staying solo at the Sands, changed dresses three times during one evening, each more deeply cleaved than the last.

THIS IS MY favorite quote from the late Fred Allen's fine biography, "Much Ado About Me": "The memory of an audience is as short-lived as the life span of a butterfly that has died prematurely." . . . Yep, I think most people in show business will agree fans are fickle. Last year's Johnnie Ray, for instance, is this year's Elvis Presley.

An eyewitness writes from Spain that Ava Gardner and her new chum, Italian actor Walter Chiari, got into a fight in a bistro there and he knocked her flat on her darling derrière . . . A smart aleck Hollywood producer was interviewing a veteran British actor for a part. He asked, condescendingly, "What have you done?" Actor: "About WHAT?"

The Unframed Political Picture

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

If there's one thing which
Can my equanimity vex,
It's to see Christmas
Spelled with a large letter X.

Oh, I know that Mr. Oliver B. Jaynes beat me to that annual complaint when he voiced his opinion of it in his corner the other day.

Just a day or so, however, after he let loose against the practice of spelling it Xmas—right smack on the front page of The Sun that word appeared. But it could not be helped. It was on a large sign at the Junior Chamber of Commerce's Christmas Tree lot. And the nimble Mr. Nims who took the picture had to shoot what he saw.

OF COURSE, in the years that I have urged against that abbreviated form for Christmas, I have had many people argue with me. Quote the Greek meaning of X and show that it has a deeply religious significance.

Even at that, I just don't like to see it. Bull-headed, maybe. But I don't think it is right to designate the glad season in the same way we mark motorists of a pedestrian crossing. Ped Xing. Perhaps that Xing is intended to simulate the sound when a pedestrian is smacked.

THERE WERE A lot of surprised telephone users in town Monday. When they called up a friend to ask a recipe, perhaps, or Aunt Minnie's address for a Yuletide card, they'd hear: "Listen to KDES, 920 on your dial." That's because KDES is staging a prize gimmick wherein they dial a number at random and if the caller answers "KDES, etc" he or she gets a ten-spot.

One woman said she tried to call her sister three times and all she heard was: "Listen to KDES, 920 on Your Dial."

A HAPPY NOTE was sounded in a UP dispatch from Washington the other day. The Children's Hospital reported happily that it had lost money this year. Because of the success to the Salk Polio shots.

Comes a communication imploring me to purchase a new device for the automobile—a Litter-bag. New? Hek, we've had one for two years and every automobile ought to be equipped with one.

THAT'S A GREAT THING the two local banks—Bank of America and Citizens National (listed alphabetically, no prejudice)—are doing for the Palm Springs Boys Club.

You know, these Christmas Clubs the banks set up. You pay so much a week and on December 1 you get a neat little sum for Christmas shopping. Clubs for 1957 are now open.

Both banks have agreed to set up a Christmas Club for the Boys Club. Members put in a buck a week and the bank will save them labor by deducting it from their account weekly.

That one buck a week is the minimum. You don't have to stop there.

Are you a gentleman? The magazine "Banking" defines a gentleman as "a man who holds the door open so his wife can carry in $25 worth of groceries in two small sacks."

INEZ ROBB:

That's a Joke, Son

"Well, sir, the Russians aren't the only people who can produce great inventors and great inventions. (That's a joke, son!)"

Maybe they did invent radar, the automobile, the steam engine, the airplane, the jeep, the telephone, radio, television and jet-propulsion. But, by golly, we've got inventors on our side working their hearts out to make life glorious for the common man, American Plan.

Why, I can hardly wait to get my cotton pickin' hands on a new, fool-proof banjo that all but plays itself. If you can count to 10, son, you can play this new, improved musical instrument, with or without blue suede shoes. (And if you can't count to 10, look for another inventor or school.)

INSTEAD OF FINGERING the frets in the old-fashioned way, the modern banjo player just presses a numbered button that corresponds with the chord he craves to produce. And, presto! He's digging Beethoven's Fifth before he can say Bix Biedeker. This does away with playing by note, by rote, or by ear. This way, an artist plays the numbers and it's legal. It's real cool, man.

But perhaps spaghetti, not music, is your problem. Have you always been afraid to eat spaghetti in public, lest you wind up with more loose ends than a May pole? Has of bowl of the stuff always reminded you of a can of worms out of control?

Those days are gone forever. Your problem has been solved by a genius who has taken out a patent on a spaghetti bowl that takes all the fight out of the stuff.

ON THE SIDE of the spaghetti bowl is a depression shaped like the bowl of a spoon. The spaghetti addict stabs a fork into the stuff, decays it over to this depression, twirls the fork around until his spaghetti is neat as a ball of twine. Then he pops it in his mouth.

Look, ma, no spots! The vest is at rest.

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Listen fellows, when the wife invites you to escort her to a hen party you had better go. You haven't any choice anyway, so why make life an ordeal. It just doesn't pay. Just say O.K., honey, and do I have to wear a tie?

It wasn't a command performance for me (or was it) when Helen Morris, co-chairman of the program committee, corraled me on the telephone and wouldn't take no for an answer. So right here I'm going to back right up to the first line of this column and tell you husbands that I had me a swell elegant time.

It was the annual Christmas party of the Palm Springs Business Women's Club, and can those dames think up gimmicks to keep all in attendance enjoying themselves. We had ourselves a ball.

THERE WERE SO many beautiful women there (which isn't any bright statement to make, I know). But listen to this; each gal carried in her hair a sprig of mistletoe. And if you didn't notice it, no one lost but you.

It was the kissingst party I ever attended. Unfortunately, the husband of the gal was always, or seemed to be, standing right beside his wife. So the guys had (what golden opportunities) to be quite discreet. But it was lovely just the same.

It took me a little while before I noticed the mistletoe, but not after I saw Van F. Harper of Plaza Motors planting a delightful one on the ruby lips of Miami Heider. Then quite quickly it seemed her husband, a handsome six footer, was introduced to me and I whispered to him: "What goes here? Isn't that your beautiful wife?"

He agreed and tipped me off to the traditional mistletoe deal and then I was on my way. So was Mrs. Heider's husband. All clean fun now, remember.

GEORGE MORRIS, whom I thought was married to Helen (as it is said about town) for nigh on to 25 years, leaned over and whispered, "I'm going to have to marry that gal." My eyes kinda popped a bit. And then he added: "You know we just bought a strawberry roan." So we heisted one to the health of the new member of the Morris family. The next time I go into his Palm Springs Drug store he is going to poison me, I bet.

EARL WILSON:

Gina Denies Bambino Rumors

NEW YORK — It was nice of Gina Lollobrigida to give me a small cocktail party — but why did she invite those 20 or 30 other press people?

Flinging myself on the divan beside her in the Waldorf Presidential suite, where she slept in the bed once slept in by Mamie Eisenhower, I asked Europe's greatest movie attraction about having a baby.

"Really" — Gina's bust heaved, which is a lovely sight — "people care more about my baby than me!"

"No," I apologized, "but I read that you hoped . . ."

"No, not now!" She almost winced. "I should have a whole college of babies for the times they have said I was having one."

Gina's English is excellent — one guest remarked that Marilyn Monroe was two hours late for a picture because she had to change sweaters — and she repeated the word worriedly to her husband, Dr. Milko Skofic.

"SWEATER, SWEATER? What is sweater?" she asked him anxiously.

"There's an Italian word for it," he groaned. "Ah, a pullover." Staring at me enviously, he exclaimed, "And you watched Marilyn Monroe change it?"

Gina's here for the opening of "Beautiful But Dangerous," in Boston — then appears with Groucho Marx on Perry Como's TV show in Miami. When somebody brings a girl into Groucho and says, "This is Gina Lollobrigida," Groucho's supposed to say, "That's a likely story."

Anyway, Gina now looks thinner-waisted and bigger-bosomed than ever and when I asked her measurements she said:

Ninety-two bust, 50 waist, 90 hips — centimeters."

AND NOBODY could break it down into inches. That'll teach me to leave my tape measure home.

My B.W. demands I praise guys, too — so how about the Handsome Hackie, Joe Goodman, of Brooklyn, known to friends as "Cyranose"? He answers jibes about his big schnozz: "Yeah, but everybody else has to breathe every minute, I only have to breathe once a week." Jimmy Durante or Phil Silvers should give Joe an audition!

Ted Mack carries a sack of Bull Durham and cigaret papers, and rolls his own. But does this discourage cigaret moochers? One character at ABC said, "How about rolling one?" . . . THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Shelley Winters performed in "Girls of Summer" despite suf-

Just about that time Georgia Kettmann walked up, and believe me she is a beautiful woman, and instantly I started looking for the mistletoe. Finding none in her hair I started looking around if Chief August Kettmann was watching. His back was turned so I placed a peck on her cheek. Whereupon the Chief did turn around and shook his finger at me in a most threatening manner. Who wants trouble with the Chief of Police, I'm asking?

So, therefore, in view of the circumstances I must report what he had to say, although it had nothing to do with the hen party, believe me.

"YOU KNOW, BILL," the Chief declared. "For the first time in years we are receiving applications from other police departments. And do you know why? Only because of the retirement plan which goes into effect Jan. 1. The I.Q.'s of the men applying are better by 25 per cent too." "And," he added, "ten candidates for positions on the police force took the recent examinations." There, I am free and clear of all indebtedness for that peck on the cheek.

Dr. James E. Potter came by to personally inform me that the only one responsible for his presence at the Christmas party was his wife.

And Helen M. Tracey, who sat at my side, whispered, "Bill, I know you don't like Cabazon and Jerry Kosseff. But he's going to do great things for that community?" Yes, ma'am. I know he is if he raises enough money and can get that poker parlor of his open.

SO IT WENT ALL evening for a grand time, and herewith I want to thank you ladies of the P.S.B.W.C. for inviting me.

But before the evening was over a gentleman stepped over and gave with this story. Seems there were two couples, great friends, and one of the husbands and one of the wives found each other quite intriguing. The telephone rings in the lady's apartment and she answers. When she returned the telephone receiver, she turned to her girl friend's husband and said: "That was my husband. He informed me that he was out playing golf with you."

That's all, Mister.

NEW YORK — Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce on the need of more money for the U. S. Foreign Service:

"When you think of the billions that we have spent abroad to prevent our own atomic annihilation, it seems folly to deny a comparatively small sum to the very service which is working hardest to prevent it."

Mobile Homes

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

This is the time of season when many residents of the Mobile Home Parks are entertaining small groups at teas, luncheons and dinners and dances.

The regular scheduled weekly dances, card parties, the classes in arts and crafts and other activities are continuing as usual.

From Christmas to New Year's most of the Parks discontinue classes for a breathing spell and resume again the first of the year.

DeLuxe Park

One of the most delightful events of the season at DeLuxe was hosted by Dr. Lincoln and Virginia Cromwell Sunday afternoon in the Clubroom to all residents of DeLuxe. It was another one of the Cromwell's Sunday afternoon 3 o'clock Coffee Hours. Eight of the Park ladies presided at the large silver coffee urns, alternating with two at either end of the table pouring and serving about 130 guests.

Decorating the table was a simulated three-foot Christmas tree, pyramided to a candle point and fringed with tiny incandescent jewels, and when lighted casting a soft shimmering glow over the table, the work of Mrs. Donald Hord, the noted sculptor, and a beautiful decoration.

THE CLUBROOM was festive with huge silver stars, together with Yuletide decorations over the massive fireplace and throughout the club room.

Those serving at the coffee urns were: Bea Fautz, Marie Wilson, Florence Combs, Patricia Siman, Alice Hendershot, Alta Russell, Lou Ellis and Mrs. Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ralph have had as their guests the past week, Mrs. Ralph's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Friar of San Francisco.

Mr. Friar is Investigator with the Immigration and Naturalization, of the Department of Justice in San Francisco. Mr. Friar says he has about reached the time of retirement, having served this department for 26 years, and when he does, he hopes to spend much time on the desert — and might even become a "trailerite" himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Catts were hosts at a dinner party, honoring their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Binger Sefton and Miss Fayette Higgins, of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Sefton is Mrs. Catts' sister.

Desert Hills

Desert Hills, the newest modern Mobile Home Park in the Palm Springs desert area now — under construction, is rapidly coming to completion. The heated and filtered pool is finished; the shuffleboard courts will be ready for play in about two weeks, and a 30' x 35' section of the club room, with sliding glass doors leading out onto a spacious patio, will temporarily take care of potluck dinners, card parties and dancing, until the 35' x 60' Recreation Hall is completed, which Keith McKelvey, co-owner and manager, says will be in about six weeks.

Landscaping of all the streets is now in progress, and there will be natural gas for 22 Mobile Homes with ramadas and cabanas. All "over-night" spaces have been rented for Christmas week, and Mr. McKelvey says he could have rented twice as many if he had had them.

The older section has been filled for some time, and about half of the new section accommodating the larger mobile homes of 45' to 60', and they are filling up rapidly.

Immediately after the Recreation Hall is completed, McKelvey said he plans to have a full program of dances and entertainment for the residents of the Park.

Sahara Park

The Women of Sahara Park met with their president Monday, for discussion and planning the month's activities.

On Tuesday, the Shuffleboard area was "abuzz" with chatter and prognostications, for Sahara's top players were meeting with those of Tranview. There were trim beautifully tanned pom-pom girls — all in white shorts, tops and fezzes — carrying huge yellow and green crepe paper pom-poms — marching between games in perfect step to martial music around and around the courts. They were Edie Clark, Olive Bartley, Mary Lee Smith, Mae Becher, Ruth Alday, Harriet Wright, Claire Anderson, Frances Kelly, Ilo Smith and Hortense West. Mr. Alday brought up the rear in white from fez to toe. The girls were directed by Pat Murphy.

The following Thursday night, a well attended dance was held in the Club House with many outside guests. The Strickland ensemble furnished the music and both pattern and ballroom dancing were enjoyed.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR Holliday are now in Melbourne attending the Olympics. For years a prominent figure with the Hearst Publications, he knows outstanding personalities and has friends the world over. After the games Mr. and Mrs. Holliday will stop over in Sydney, Singapore and Colombo, visiting in Colombo with the Maharajah and the Maharance of Kotah. The Maharajah was a guest of the Holidays here last winter. More of this trip when they return to "Holidays on the Desert" in Sahara Park where they spend their winters.

Several new cabanas and ramadas are being constructed, among them the Wrights, the Cornetts, the Kotsigas, the Fosters, the Dr. Gayles and Mrs. Warner, from Lido Park, Newport Beach.

The Herrings from Bend, Ore., are recent arrivals for the winter.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE Ryness from Long Beach are recent arrivals in Sahara Park for the balance of the season. Mr. Ryness is one of the major subdividers and builders of Los Angeles county.

Mrs. Lois Stevens had as her guests Mrs. Sam Curry of Malibu, Mrs. Nell Todd of Encino and Mrs. G. Trans of Los Angeles.

Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson were recent visitors to Santa Monica and brought Mrs. Anderson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rube, from Fremont, Neb. for a visit.

The Pot Luck dinner held last Wednesday was most successfully planned and well attended. Men's and ladies' cards followed.

Beckley's Park

By WALT HAWKINS
Bicycling has become a popular sport around the park. Nearby are so many unoccupied, almost private paved roads, to beautiful retreats, among palm and citrus groves, and private ranches, that residents here began acquiring bicycles two or three years ago.

Everitt and Ruth Sween of Sacramento, have arrived to spend the winter. They recently returned from a trip to Europe, going over on the Queen Mary, and returning over the polar air route from Copenhagen. While in London, they procured an M.G., which proved to be an ideal car for sight-seeing trips to France, Germany, Austria, Italy and Spain.

They particularly enjoyed the tour over the Alps, part snow covered Gross Glockman Peak, and side trips to small municipalities, such as San Marino, and Andora; also a steamer trip to the Island of Majorca. By an odd coincidence, in Vienna, the Sween's ran into the Wally Byam tour. There were about 43 trailers in the Byam caravan.

Now there are two Gold Airfloat Flagships in Beckleys. Coulter Jones had the first one, and now Sam and Louise Vasily, from San Gabriel, have arrived with a new one.

George and Joe Elby have just returned from a trip to Phoenix and Las Vegas.

KEN AND THELMA Floyd arrived from Van Nuys with a new Boles.

Jack Linthicum and son are residents in the park.

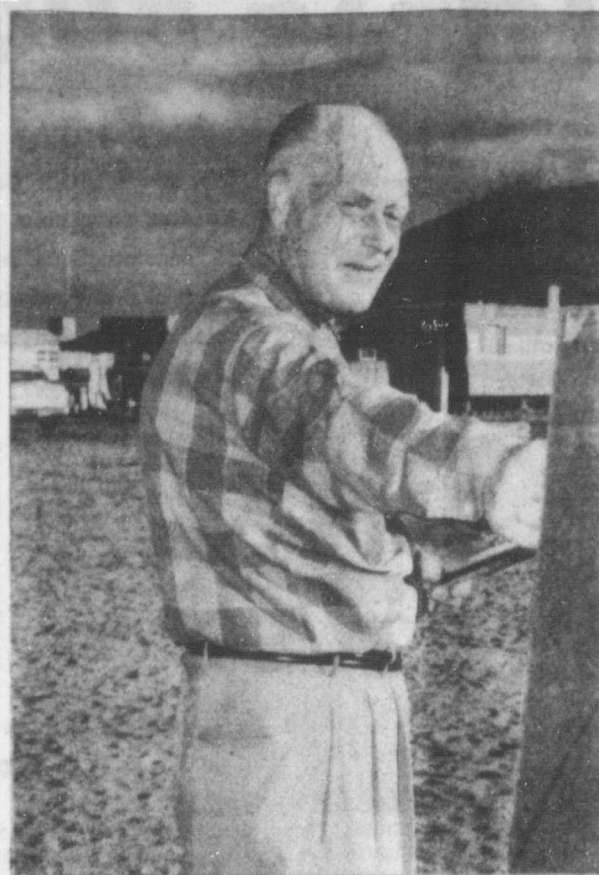

The Barners entertained the Arthur Tripps of Hemet over the weekend.

Slides were enjoyed last Thursday night. Not only were the pictures of Alaska an outstanding collection, but the narrator, David Glines, was very interesting.

Balloon Found

Roy Smythe of the Circle B Ranch, reported that he had found a weather balloon in his field. It was identified as a U.S. Army Signal Corps balloon, yellow with aluminum case and small radio transmitter attached.

Nationally Known Artist, Gaylor Richmond, Engaged as Arts and Crafts Instructor

GAYLORD RICHMOND, well known artist, has been engaged at De Luxe Trailer Park as arts and crafts instructor. First class in oil and water color painting was held Monday, with a class in ceramics and jewelry making scheduled for Friday. (Desert Sun Photo)

Gaylord Richmond, nationally known artist, has been engaged as instructor of Arts and Crafts at the DeLuxe Trailer Park, it was announced this week.

versity, and also at the Los Angeles County Art Institute.

These classes are open to all other trailerists and also to the public by registration at the De Luxe office.

Lions Club to See Movie, Hear of Northwest Area

Palm Springs Lions Club tomorrow will hear and see a story of the Pacific Northwest when Bud Saiben, Village resident, shows a colored movie and discusses that area at the weekly luncheon meeting at the Chi Chi. He will speak on Victoria but also touch on Oregon and Washington.

Saiben has had eight years of lecturing experience and his films have won wide praise.

Earl Hough will be chairman for the day.

Next week the Lions Club will stage its annual Ladies Day Christmas party with a program of carols and Yuletide music directed by Alex Hammond.

Carnation corner

I never feel that the holiday season is really under way until I have my first sip of Carnation Egg Nog. Only Carnation could make it so good—a delicious combination of fine, pure ingredients touched with just the right blend of fragrant spices.

Best of all, I've found a wonderful new way to enjoy it. Carnation Egg Nog and fruit cocktail are the basic ingredients for a delightful holiday pie. It's delicate enough to top off a rich meal... pretty enough to grace any party table. Here's one dessert you'll want to serve often.

Fruit Cocktail Egg Nog Pie

1 #2½ can fruit cocktail
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin
1½ cups CARNATION EGG NOG
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla
¼ teaspoon almond flavoring
1 cup Carnation Whipping Cream
9-inch baked pie shell

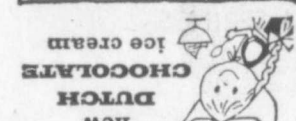

Drain fruit cocktail. Save ½ cup syrup. Dissolve gelatin in syrup; place over hot water. Stir until gelatin dissolves. Remove from heat; mix with egg nog, salt and flavorings. Chill until mixture mounds when dropped from spoon. Whip cream; fold into gelatin and 1½ cups fruit cocktail. Chill 5-10 minutes. Heap into pastry shell. Decorate with remaining fruit cocktail. Chill 2 to 4 hours.

With plenty of Carnation Egg Nog in my refrigerator I'm always prepared for holiday guests. Everybody loves this rich-tasting drink—including the children.

Put a tree on your table!

Here's a wonderful way to use extra Christmas tree ornaments. Anchor a knitting needle in a block of plastic foam and loop the ornaments over it to form a shiny Christmas ball tree. Start with the largest balls at the bottom and work up to the smallest. Makes a perfect centerpiece.

ONLY CARNATION COULD MAKE IT SO GOOD!

Club's Christmas Party Full of Holiday Spirit

Christmas carols and a gift-laden Santa Claus, the breaking of the pinata, and one of Santos' spectacular buffet tables made the Christmas party of the Palm Springs Business Women's Club at Deep Well Monday night one of the most festive of the pre-holiday affairs. The 65-voice choir from Nellie Coffman junior high school sang carols and the madrigal group sang "Silent Night." One of the outstanding a capella choirs, this group is directed by Hugh Givens, and was presented by Sally Ohrt, program chairman.

President Tess Potter presided at the dinner meeting, which was attended by 88 members and their guests.

The tables had been beautifully decorated by Jennie Leonoso, who used decorated desert primrose lanterns, sequined duck decoys, and numerous other pine cone and cholla decorations.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

MELBOURNE, (U.P.) — Australian youngsters are developing a new set of muscles — baseball biceps.

Such terms as soup bone, south-paws and singles still leave most of the Anzacs a bit on the puzzled side. But among a people who seem more American than British, baseball is gaining an even wider and more enthusiastic audience.

Right now there are more than 11,000 players in Australia — a country with a population of about 8.5 million.

And, quite naturally, there is night baseball just as there is in the States. The chief center of the nocturnal side of the game is Perth and Adelaide, both cities being in the western part of the nation. A recent series of night games there attracted crowds of more than 25,000 spectators.

Some of our minor league towns wish they could do as well.

THE GAME has been a smashing success in Japan for years, as attested by the sell-out tours of the New York Giants and, more recently, the Brooklyn Dodgers. So wrapped up are the Japanese in the game that, during the late hostilities, the most flagrant insult they could mix in with "Banzai" was "To hell with Babe Ruth."

But now the diamond fever is spreading to Australia and, for example, large crowds are attracted at the Melbourne Cricket Grounds each Wednesday night for exhibitions. An American vendor of "red hots" could do worse than to peddle his parboiled puppies, known in Australia as "sausages" right here in Melbourne.

The ever-increasing international interest in baseball is a direct outcome of the war. Servicemen carried the diamond gospel around the world and in most places it took.

Even prior to that, at Berlin during the 1936 Olympic games, baseball was put on as a "foreign sport" exhibition. Nobody hardly knew what the players were doing.

BUT DURING these Olympic games, an exhibition was played at the main stadium between an American service team and an Australian team and it was surprising how many of the 110,000 fans in the stadium—waiting for the resumption of the track and field contests—knew the score.

There is a movement underway to get baseball accepted as an Olympic event. Because of the widespread interest, it is entirely conceivable that the game will be made an integral part of the games — just as golf and tennis should be.

Only an apparent selfishness keeps those last two sports from being incorporated in the games. The ordinary summer scheduling of the games conflicts with most major golf and tennis events and the brass hats don't want to lose their "gates."

But baseball is on its way, even down here in the southern seas, and sooner or later the game which Abner Doubleday invented will become an Olympic sport. Maybe it ain't cricket—but the Australians at the moment apparently couldn't care less.

Trojans Down Hawaiians 85-55

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.) — The University of Southern California Trojans wind up their two-game basketball series tonight with the University of Hawaii Rainbows at Pan-Pacific Auditorium.

The Trojans rolled to an easy 85-55 victory over the traveling Honoluluans in the series opened Tuesday night. It was undefeated Southern California's third straight win of the season and Hawaii's fifth straight loss.

Minors Ruling Baseball Roost

Majors Grant Concessions To Aid Clubs

All Requests Made by Minors Given Big Leaguers O.K.

CHICAGO, (U.P.) — Minor League baseball teams should be able to stabilize their lineups much earlier than usual next spring because the major leagues will have to release more surplus players 30 days earlier than in the past.

The major leagues Tuesday accepted the minor league proposal to force the big league clubs to reduce their rosters to 28 men by the opening day of the major league season, usually before the opening day of any minor leagues.

Previously, the major league clubs could retain 40 men if they chose until 30 days after the season opening. Most of them usually kept 30 players until just before the 30 day deadline requiring them to reduce their roster to 25.

THE RULE forcing reduction of the major league rosters to 25 remains effective 30 days after the opening day of the season.

The major leagues acceded to every request by the minor leagues and also adopted a resolution providing for the minor and major league meetings to be held at the same site each year with the minor leagues picking the location in odd numbered years and the majors naming the site in even numbered years.

The club owners voted down a proposal forbidding the transfer of championship games to non-major league parks, thus permitting Brooklyn, if it wishes, to continue playing league games in Jersey City. They also rejected a proposal to increase the allotment of World Series tickets to each major league team from 50 to 100.

ON REQUEST of Commissioner Ford Frick, the owners voted out the rule governing the signing of college baseball players, effective Feb. 1, 1957. The current rule prohibits signing college players from the beginning of their sophomore year until their class graduates, except that a player may be signed in case of hardship, should he reach the age of 21, or should he quit school.

Hebert Favored In Mayfair Open

SANFORD, Fla., (U.P.) — Lionel Hebert of Verona, Pa., was installed as one of the early favorites today for the $15,000 Mayfair Open which gets underway here Thursday.

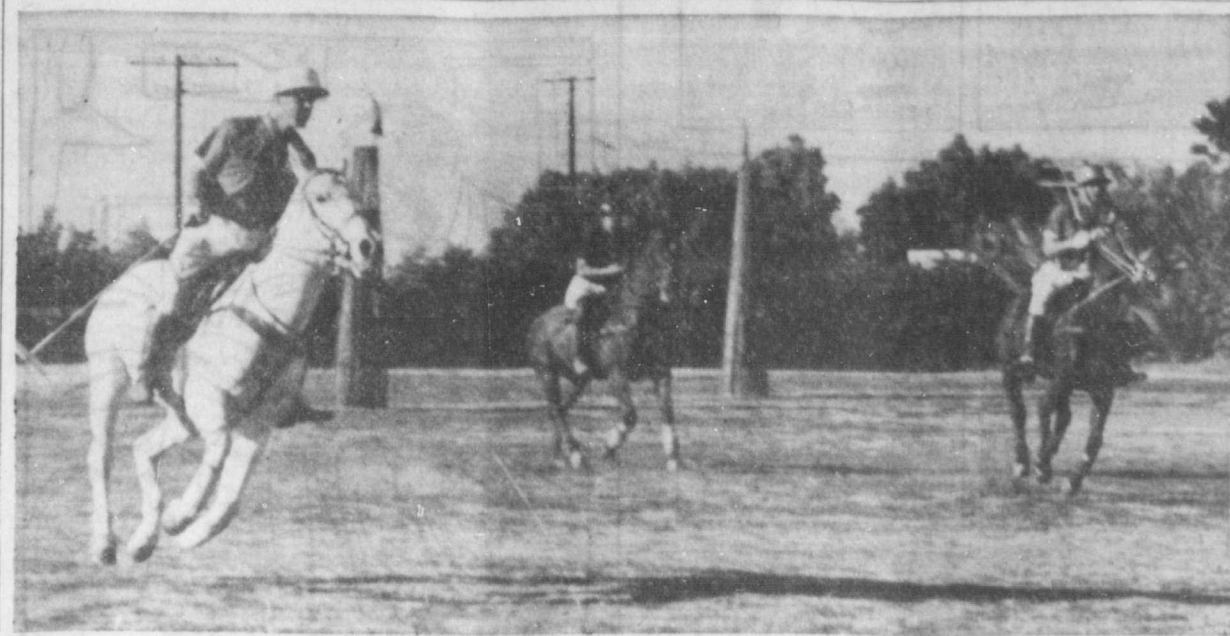

A total of 50 golfers qualified Tuesday for the opening round but most of the attention centered around Hebert, who equaled the course record with a five-under-par 65.

Hebert, who was exempt from qualifying for the 72-hole event because he won the pro-amateur event before last year's tournament, strung together five birdies and 13 pars.

De Kroll of Cooperstown, N.Y., Don Addington of Tecumseh, Mich., and Bill Morgan of Orlando, Fla., tied for the qualifying medal with 66 apiece.

Centella Honored

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.) — Nicaraguan lightweight boxer Kid Centella was named "fighter of the month for November" Tuesday by the Southern California Boxing Writers Assn.

THRILLS MARK the weekly Polo matches at Shadow Mountain Club and Desert Air Fields with exciting games scheduled Saturdays and Sundays. Above is a bit of action from last weekend's play. Round Robin Polo Matches This Weekend

San Francisco and La Jolla Polo teams will be here next weekend to meet the Desert Air and Red Diamond squads in a four-team Round Robin, the first of the season, Lisle Nixon, in charge of arrangements, reported today.

Action is scheduled at the Shadow Mountain field on Saturday afternoon, and at the Desert Air strip on Sunday.

Last Sunday, at Desert Air, the Red Diamond team scored an easy 10 to 7 win over the Desert Air squad. Herschel Bonham and Morris Morrison starred for the winners.

On Saturday, at Shadow Mountain, San Francisco won by four net goals in a Round Robin with the Shadow Mountain and Red Diamond teams. Action here saw Willie Tevis suffer several severe facial cuts in a collision with Peter Hitchcock. The injury required several stitches.

Tevis will be out of action for two weeks, and is now in San Francisco.

Rams Ask More Cash for Games

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.) — A grievance committee of five players said today it planned to meet again soon with owners of the Los Angeles Rams to discuss the players' demand for more money.

The committee and four owners of the professional football club met Tuesday. No conclusions were reached during the meeting which was described by a Ram spokesman as "an enjoyable and pleasant get-together to discuss mutual problems."

The players in August threatened to stage a sit down strike if they were not paid for playing in exhibition games. It was agreed then, however, to postpone discussion of the matter until the end of the season.

De Francisco Out As Riverside Coach

RIVERSIDE, (U.P.) — Nate De Francisco has been dismissed as head football coach of Riverside Junior College, the school confirmed today.

De Francisco, former UCLA star football player, served as head coach at the junior college for the last five years. His teams won 15 games, lost 26 and were tied twice.

UPSETS PLAGUE COLLEGE CAGERS

By TIM MORIARTY

United Press Sports Writer

Nobody, but nobody appeared safe today from the wave of upsets sweeping across the college basketball front.

Clemson must have been at least a 20-point underdog for its game with North Carolina State Tuesday night. After all, the Tigers hadn't beaten State on the hardwood since 1941.

So look what happened: Clemson laughed at the odds and handed the Wolfpack a 96-94 defeat in overtime. It was the Tigers' first victory in three games this season; they won only nine of 26 last year, and State's first defeat of the new campaign.

VINCE YOCKEL, a "Southern gentleman" from Jersey City, N.J., scored eight of Clemson's final 10 points in regulation time to tie the score at 86-all and wound up with 31 points. Bill Yarborough's four free throws in overtime provided the Tigers with their winning margin.

In another eyebrow-raiser, Lafayette turned back once-mighty LaSalle, 84-75, for the first time since 1949. This game was won at the foul line. LaSalle outscored the Leopards from the field, 30-27, but Lafayette canned 30 of 43 free throws compared to the Explorers' 15 of 22 mark.

Fourth-ranked Southern Methodist lived to play another night, walloping Wichita, 93-70, for its fourth straight victory. The Mustangs scored 20 points in the first five minutes and wound up converting 44 of 66 field goal attempts. Jim Krebs scored 31 points for the winners.

Washington & Lee turned back Richmond, 86-83, in overtime; Glen Jacek's 25 points helped Houston defeat Sam Houston State, 85-83; Bowling Green edged Detroit, 67-66; on Jim McDonald's field goal; Wake Forest posted a 66-55 victory over Virginia, and Furman turned back William & Mary, 69-66.

Chet Forte tallied 32 points as Columbia downed Fordham, 99-84, for its fourth straight; Connecticut rolled to an 88-75 triumph over Rutgers; St. John's defeated Hofstra, 59-44, as Walt Brady scored 20 points; Holy Cross opened its season with an 82-57 victory over St. Anselm, and St. Francis N.Y. spanked Fairfield, 71-53.

Dayton, upset by DePaul in its last start, hopes to bounce back tonight when it visits Miami of Ohio. Louisville, another highly regarded team which bowed to Canisius in its last start, was to have met Wayne tonight but the game was cancelled.

Second-ranked North Carolina plays George Washington at Norfolk, N.C., while North Carolina State continues its road tour by meeting South Carolina at Charlotte, S.C.

Other major games include DePaul at Purdue, Niagara at Syracuse, Oklahoma at Texas, Penn State at West Virginia, Temple at Princeton, and Seattle at St. Mary's Calif.

Patterson Holds Unique Honor in Boxing Circles

NEW YORK, (U.P.) — Floyd Patterson, youngest heavyweight champion, today enjoyed the unique honor of being the only man ever chosen "fighter of the year" and "rookie of the year" by the Boxing Writers Assn. during his career.

The "rookie of the year" for 1953 was named "fighter of the year" for 1956 today by the association, which also announced that sports columnist Frank Graham of the N.Y. Journal-American had been awarded the annual plaque for long and meritorious service to boxing.

Patterson, 21, will receive the Edward J. Neil Memorial plaque for his outstanding contributions to the sport during the year at the boxing writers' annual dinner on Jan. 24.

Costa Favored in Jorgensen Bout

NEW YORK, (U.P.) — Young Paul Jorgensen, pride of the Southwest and outstanding American contender for the featherweight crown, makes his Eastern debut tonight at Madison Square Garden against Brooklyn's Carmelo Costa.

A Jorgensen victory in the TV 10-rounder could earn a shot at Sandy Saddler's 126-pound crown. Contrary to expectations, fifth-rated Costa is favored at 7-5 to beat the Danish lad from Port Arthur, Tex., who is ranged second among world contenders, just one notch under Cherif Hamia of France.

Synchronettes in Swim Show at Shadow Mountain

SYNCHRONETTES 30-3

Shadow Mountain Club members and guests were looking forward to the next Sports Show at the club as result of the great success of the first two.

In the second show the Synchronettes were featured in the unique "pool and deck" show. The Synchronettes, a water ballet team, displayed fancy and comedy diving at its best.

The team ran away with the S. O. A. U. and West Coast Swimming Championships this year and are under supervision of Bob Engle of Long Beach.

A canoeing safety and skill demonstration was presented by M. R. Hallock of the Riverside American Red Cross.

Miss Betty Crockett, Shadow Mountain Club's swimming hostess, emceed the show.

Future Sport Shows will feature fencing, judo, wrestling and many other forms of minor sports, Louis C. Kuehner, program director for Shadow Mountain, said.

The victory was the fifth of six starts in the United States for Ursua, who now has a record of 26-4 with 17 knockouts. He weighed 115 pounds to Diaz' 117.

Ursua Wins Nod Over Memo Diaz

STOCKTON, (U.P.) — Unranked Tommy Ursua, 115, Manila walloped Mexico's Memo Diaz, 117, with everything but a chunk of Corregidor Tuesday night as he scored a unanimous 10-round decision over the No. 1 challenger to the world flyweight crown.

The victory was the fifth of six starts in the United States for Ursua, who now has a record of 26-4 with 17 knockouts. He weighed 115 pounds to Diaz' 117.

U.S., Aussies Express Fear Of Each Other

Both Teams Claim Other Stronger in Davis Cup Matches

By LEO H. PETERSEN

United Press Sports Editor

PERTH, Australia, (U.P.) — Billy Talbot of New York and Australia's Harry Hopman sounded like members of a mutual admiration society today as they looked ahead to another possible clash between the United States and Australia in the Davis Cup challenge round.

Most tennis experts figure the undermanned Yanks will win this weekend's inter-zone final against India, including Talbot, non-playing captain of the U.S. team.

HOWEVER, TALBOT professes "we just don't figure to beat the Aussies" in the challenge round at Adelaide later this month, while Hopman warns "don't sell those United States boys short."

"I see where most experts are saying the United States will be lucky to win one of the five matches in the challenge round," said the long-time guiding genius of Australia's tennis forces. "But I don't go for that sort of thinking."

"You American fellows never had a bad team and never will have as long as you have a fellow like Billy Talbot in charge," Hopman added. "I am confident we will win the challenge round but it isn't going to be a breeze and if our players are not at the top of their game, we could lose."

"I HAVE BEEN around too long to sell Americans short in anything, especially tennis."

Talbot, meanwhile, was awaiting the draw Thursday for the opening singles matches against India Friday. He plans to use veteran Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., in singles but admitted "I don't know what the makeup of my doubles team will be."

The crew-cut Yank captain said he might pair Seixas with Flam or Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex. He also is considering young Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., as a possible partner for Seixas.

Arnett Awarded Voigt Grid Trophy

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.) — Halback Jon Arnett of University of Southern California has been named winner of the W. J. Voigt Memorial Football Trophy for the second straight year, the Helms Athletic Foundation disclosed today.

The award is presented to the outstanding football player on the Pacific Coast as determined by the balloting of local sports editors and sportscasters.

Dennis, Ferguson Challenge Pittenger in Handicap Flight

Harold Pittenger of Thunderbird held his lead after 36 holes of play in the Handicap Flight of Thunderbird Country Club's Invitational Golf tournament this morning as final rounds were started in the division.

Pittenger had a 134 net after Monday and Tuesday's rounds for his title bid.

Wally Dennis of Lakeside and Glen Ferguson of Bakersfield carded 65s in yesterday's play.

They bested Pittenger's first round of 66 and had an excellent chance to take over the lead in the 36-hole tourney as the Thunderbird golfer had concluded his rounds.

Dennis and Ferguson, both 11-handicappers, turned in identical 78 cards.

The handicap flight will wind up today.

Tomorrow Seniors take over in an 18-hole flight in four age brackets, 55-59, 60-64, 65-70 and 70 and over.

Mrs. Jane Antribus of Emerald Bay, friend of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schwilch, visited here over the weekend. She stayed at Shadow Mountain Terrace.

Hospitality House entertained the west coast distributors of the Stanthony Corp. over the weekend: Joseph Saygenito, Duncan Peel and Howard Driskell of San Francisco, Bill Dunlap of Seattle, Howard Palmer of San Diego, Bob Peterson and Richard Crouch of Phoenix.

Mrs. J. B. Murphy of Detroit has arrived here and will spend the holiday season with her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Germeaux.

The young married couple's party will be one of the social highlights of this week at Shadow Mountain Club. This group always have an original idea incorporated in these affairs. Decor will be a surprise as well as the program.

Guests at Sage and Sun this week are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barker and his brother, W. H. Barker. The Barkers will be applying golf at Tamarisk. Others are Mr. and Mrs. H. Kennedy who came to the desert almost every weekend. Dr. and Mrs. H. Tolfree will return to Carmel after a five week visit with Mrs. Major Slater.

Everyone has a circle around Saturday, Dec. 15, when the Todds will make their first appearance of the season at Shadow Mountain Club.

Willard and Virginia Parker hosted Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Briskin over the weekend. Other guests at the Parkers were Eric Monti, Mr. and Mrs. George Ehrenfort of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. George DeNormand. Most of the men, including the host, will be golfing at Tamarisk this week.

The weekly Bridge-Canasta-Shanghai Luncheon at Shadow

Mountain Club has met with great success this year. Every week sees an increase in attendance. Shanghai is a new card game that has taken this area by storm—a game that can be played by an number, not too serious and a wonderful way to become acquainted. Mrs. Isabelle Belyea heads the committee for these weekly affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cotner have as their guests for two weeks, Mrs. Cotner's cousin, Mrs. Wilfred Humberstone of Woodstock, Ontario, and Miss Margaret Abbott of Nottingham, England. On Saturday evening the two visitors were entertained by a group of friends at the Shadow Mountain Club, including Mr. and Mrs. Cotner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellsworth, Fred Siemen, Ernest Blenkhorn, Mrs. Evelyn Smith, Mrs. Jack Rawlins and Mrs. Harriet Homer. The party celebrated the joint birthdays of Mrs. Humberstone and Mr. Cotner, and was preceded by cocktails at the Cotner home.

Among the members and guests seen at Shadow Mountain Club over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Val Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker, the Roy Kesslers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clandening, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas Jones, Mrs. Adell Lingo, the Spencer Honigs, the Page Hubbles, Mr. and Mrs. John Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schwilch, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Bandini, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aha and guests, Mr. and Mrs. George B. McWilliams and guests.
